Remarkable Christmas Present.

Among the curious Christmas presents of this year will be one for a man of national reputation, which has been all year in the making.

Way last January the present was decided upon, and a friend of the prominent gentleman requested the Burrell Press Clipping Bureau, of New York, to watch every paper in America, and to take up every item which appeared concerning the man.

The clipping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this special man. The history ends just after election, and the 20,642 newspaper items found include everything from a three-line editorial mention to full-page illustrated stories. These have been mounted on 3,203 great sheets of Irish linen paper and bound into three massive volumes.

At the head of each item is the name and date of paper clipped from, this information having been put in with a book typewriter. The words thus inserted amount to 153,852.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrell Press Clipping Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrell, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burrell, New York," will reach him with no delay.

Reception for Times-Dispatch Party.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Durham, N. C., May 27.—The roads over which The Times-Dispatch North Carolina endurance run party is to travel are being put in shape very rapidly, and when the Virginia automobilists arrive it is expected that the roads will be found in good shape.
